STUDENT LIFE

So Kristie, you say you want my body?

It's Woodie Da
Wabbit!

A junior and she still sucks her thumb!

The senior flytrap.

Simple things please simple minds.

The magic man.

What's a Cummla?

Greg Stelten?

Things people will do for a picture.

My prayers have been answered.

There she is, isn't she a foxll

Surgeon General Warning: This is an effect of caffeine

This picture doesn't need a captlon!

I knew I shouldn't have eaten that pie!

Get it off my face!

They do this in College?

Hey, guys. I can't do Lou Ferrigno!

Lunch rooms have got to be the most boring places!

You wouldn't dare!

You try teaching this!

Look at that wiggle!

In Mr. G. or Mr. K.'s office?

Me? Against Gordy?

Well, trends do change.

If it's got to be a picture, take it of my better side.

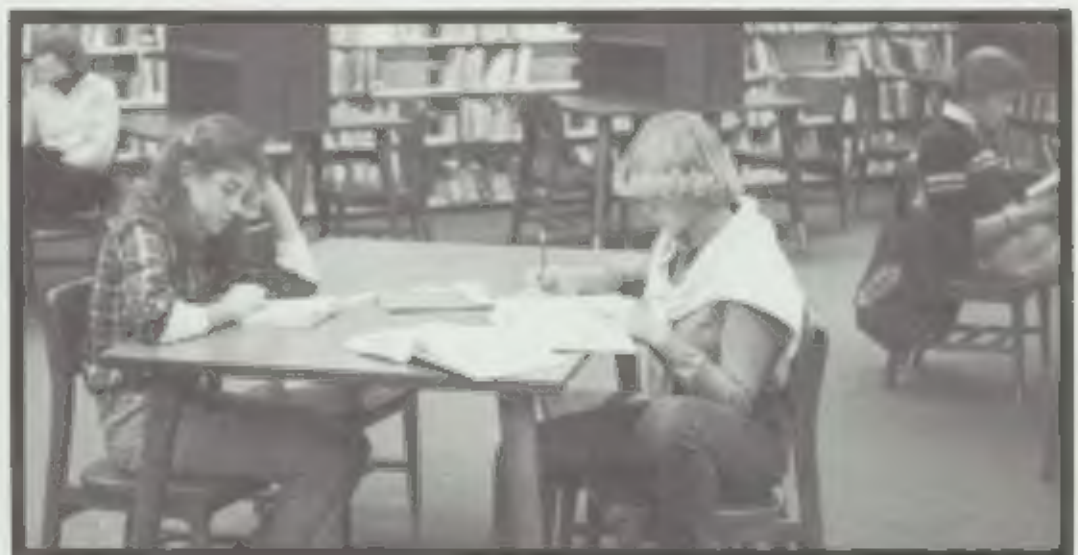

Cheryl Tiegs, watch out!

Hey, quit making me go SPLAT!

What did I just shake hands with?

Some people do study!

Freshmen!

I don't believe it. I saw a UFO!!!

Don't be a bugger. eat a booger

Up chuck!

They're happy!?!

What are you looking at?

A typical Willmar case!

He's definitely not a "32"

So tell me I'm "beautiful"

Say What?

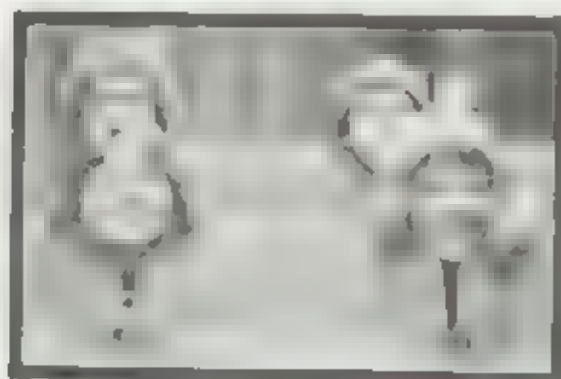

I hate it when he makes us do this

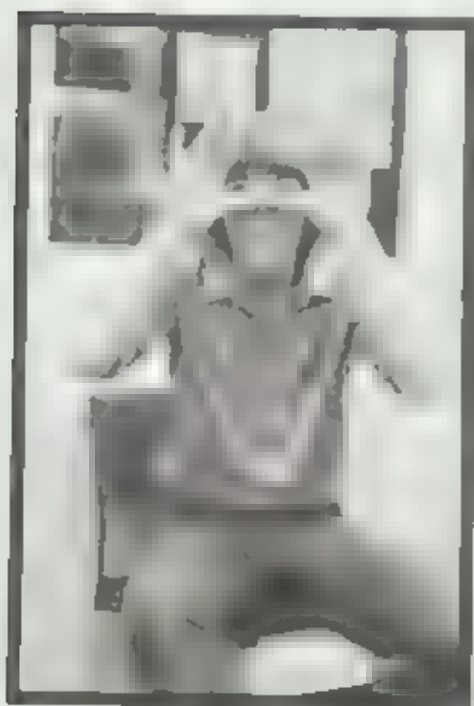

If you could just stay little until your Carter's wear out

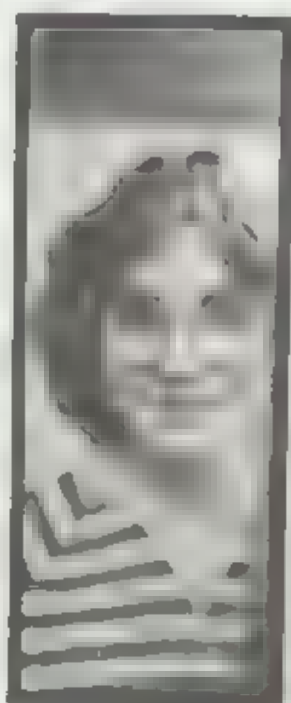

No, it's not playgirl!

It won't fit

Don't shoot! He's not in season

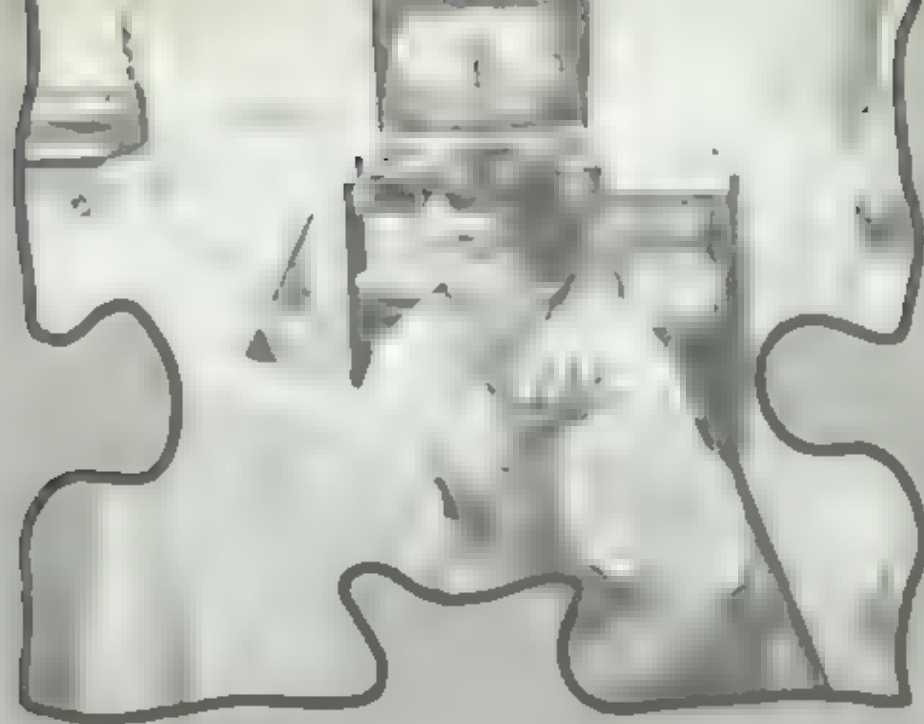

Come on guys stop it'

ACTIVITIES

HOME COMING '80

Homecoming week started off with a soccer game. The seniors challenged the underclassmen. The seniors barely lost in Sudden Death, they should have offered Mr. Meyer more Diane Ohman won first place in Join the Army day, and the seniors finally put the underclassmen in their place. LAST!! in the Olympics. The volleyball and cross country teams did fantastic, and the football team crushed Rocori 27-6.

CHRISTMAS IS THE CELEBRATION
TO WHICH YOU NEED NO
INVITATION

Twass the day before X-mas and all through the halls, not a student was stirring not even a Desautel. Their coats were all hung in their locker with care, in hope that vacation soon would be there. The kids were all restless while chained to their desks, while visions of celebrating danced in their heads .

CORONATION

Sno-Daze Week 1981 was full of fun right up to the end. Monday featured one of the strangest contests ever to hit AHS, wrestler leg-identification day. Whoever won spends too much time watching legs. On Tuesday everyone showed up in their favorite Jersey. All day the guys had to use all their charm to get the girls to talk to them (and hand over ribbons too). Career day on Wednesday revealed some rather strange characters. Greg Salk and Alex Herda starred as punk rockers, Lori Cigelski as your friendly neighborhood cannibal, but the hit of the day had to be Dezi the NUN, (wonder what convent accepted her!) The Seniors got off to a slow start at the Olympics but, of course, the Seniors won hands down and unharmed. (Which is more than can be said for the Sophomores!) The girls' basketball team beat Rocori to retain their undefeated title. The wrestling team didn't fare as well against Rocori at home. Mark Wolkala, Mike Peternell, and Pete Schmidt did beat their opponents and Gordy Court pinned his man. Friday was the big day with Coronation of King Tom and Queen Peg, skits (won by Ahab the Arab), a pep fest, the Purple Jug (won by the Seniors, whoee), an exciting basketball game against Sauk Centre (which Albany won) and a great half-time show by the Royal Guard and Band. The Dance, featuring "RINGS", finished off the week.

1. The first step in the process of the formation of the state is the creation of a common identity among the people. This is achieved through the establishment of a common language, culture, and religion. The second step is the creation of a common territory, which is achieved through the establishment of a common border and a common capital. The third step is the creation of a common government, which is achieved through the establishment of a common constitution and a common set of laws. The fourth step is the creation of a common economy, which is achieved through the establishment of a common currency and a common set of economic policies. The fifth step is the creation of a common social system, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of social norms and a common set of social services. The sixth step is the creation of a common foreign policy, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of foreign relations and a common set of international agreements. The seventh step is the creation of a common defense system, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of military forces and a common set of defense policies. The eighth step is the creation of a common justice system, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of courts and a common set of legal principles. The ninth step is the creation of a common education system, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of schools and a common set of educational standards. The tenth step is the creation of a common health system, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of hospitals and a common set of health policies. The eleventh step is the creation of a common environment, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of environmental laws and a common set of environmental policies. The twelfth step is the creation of a common culture, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of cultural institutions and a common set of cultural policies. The thirteenth step is the creation of a common religion, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of religious institutions and a common set of religious policies. The fourteenth step is the creation of a common language, which is achieved through the establishment of a common set of linguistic institutions and a common set of linguistic policies.
